

How the online check-in works in the Allgäu Walser app

Open the host's email and click on
"Get your pass",
or scan the QR code.

Complete missing data
in the registration form (mandatory fields are marked with *)

At least agree to the terms of use.

Sign the registration form digitally.

The Allgäu-Walser Pass
is issued immediately.

Important information about the Allgäu-Walser-Pass

Activation: The QR code is valid from 0.00 am on the day of arrival and remains active until 11.59 pm on the day of departure.

Services: All included services (e.g. use of the Walserbus) are listed under the QR code.

Upgrades: Additional services can be booked in the "Shop". These are then also available digitally. The QR code is updated automatically.

Offline use:

- Download the Allgäu-Walser-Pass app to have the QR code available even without network reception.
- An Internet connection is required for the web version.

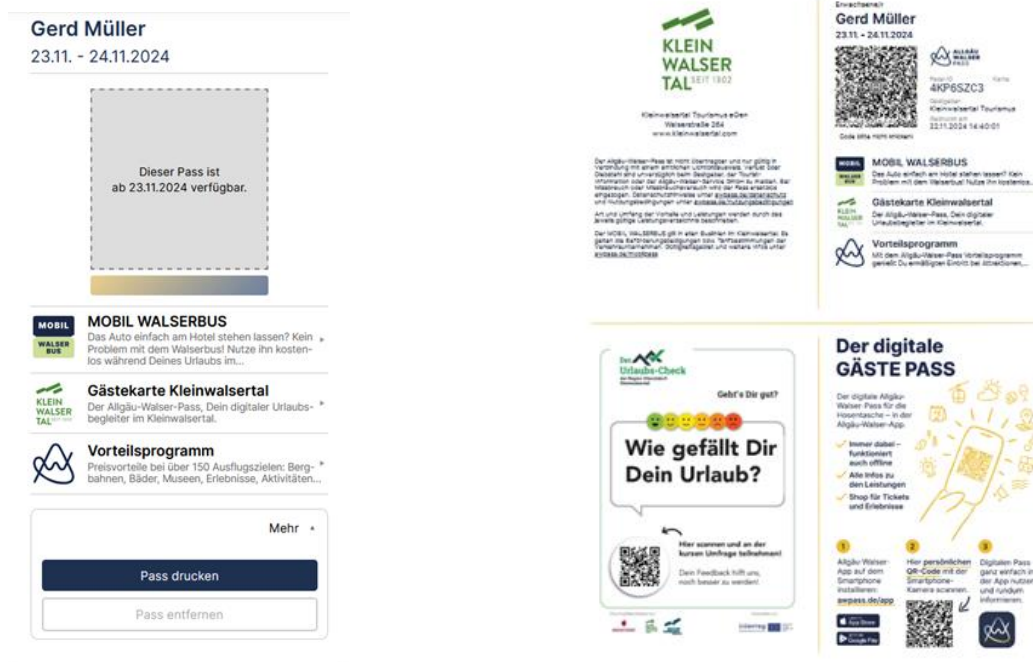

Book additional services: Payments can be made in the store using PayPal or credit card.

Changes to the travel dates:

If the travel dates change, the registration form will be adjusted by the host.
The QR code is updated automatically. No further steps are required.

No smartphone? Print your passport!

Click on “Print passport” to receive the Allgäu-Walser-Passport as an A4 document.

- Take care not to crease the QR code when folding.
- Changes to the travel dates or new additional services require a new printout.

Passes for fellow travelers and children:

- Digital passport: Each guest entered on the registration form receives their own passport.

The passports of fellow travelers are stored in the main person's app and can be forwarded using the “Share” function.

- Printout: The host can print and hand out passes for all guests. Individual passes can be reprinted if required.

For smooth use:

- Keep the QR code to hand to use all services easily.
- The host is available for questions or support.
- When booking additional services, e.g. entrance fees or ski pass, please always have the receipt with you as a printout or online.

Have a great vacation and a relaxing time in Kleinwalsertal!

